Mrs. A. M. Harryman,
1111 N. Stevens Ave.,
El Paso, Texas.

My dear Cousin Mary:

Your letter of January 7th has remained in my unanswered file since it was received. I have though each week I would reply and have been waiting to try and write you by hand, but I have been so pressed for time and so thoroughly tired all the while and away from home so much, that I just could not find a time to write.

Two years ago today I had lunch with Cousin Della Collier in Waco. Two years ago tomorrow I visited Tom Wilson, Hardware Merchant, Tyler. Two years ago Friday I had lunch with Mrs. Anne Witte, of Mt. Pleasant, having with me at each place Cousins Mary Greene Wilson, niece of my grandmother, Amanda Greene Collier.

Tell Earl that Alsace is a beautiful doy, and I have nother little black Daschunde named Fritsy, and that Alsace has two puppies. One is named "Gertrude Ederle" and the other "Ruth Elder". These names were given them by little Jessie.

Give my love to all the family when you see them.

A lady connected here with our school tells Mrs. Collier that she met you this past Summer when she was in Texas, or some place out West. This lady I do not know myself, but she is the wife of one of the teachers at Gordon College here, and has visited our home several times.

Kindly accept good wishes from all the family, and we trust you will have a very pleasant Thanksgiving dinner of those most wonderful Texas turkeys. I notice that J. B. Collier, who is President of the Texas Poultry Association, came out in last night's and this morning's papers with quite a lengthy interview, stating that the Texas poultry raisers had pocketed three and one-half million dollars from turkeys for Thanksgiving dinners.

Well goodbye for this time.

Sincerely,

JCC:S
